OLFIBAS Olfaction in Basel

Jahrestagung der AG Olfaktologie – Gustologie

29.-30. November 2013,

BASEL

Vorprogramm

Dear Colleagues,

We are happy to invite you to OLFiBAS – Olfaction in Basel.

For the first time we will hold the annual meeting of our working group «Olfaction and Taste» consisting of mostly austrian, german and swiss members and being part of the German Society of Oto-Rhino-Laryngology, Head and Neck Surgery mainly in English. Moreover, we do not only present free papers but also have been able to invite international speakers talking about the latest news in olfaction.

Abstracts for free papers can be submitted electronically to Prof. Dr. Thomas Hummel (please see information part of the programm).

Just «as usual» we will have a special event on Friday evening and will go out to Congress Dinner together.

We look forward to welcome you in Basel soon!

Prof. Dr. Antje Welge-Lüssen and Prof. Thomas Hummel

We thank our sponsors:
